Free & Budget-Friendly

SUMMER FUN IN HUTCH

Looking for summer fun that won't break the bank? Hutchinson is full of free and low-cost activities perfect for families. Here are just a few local favorites to fill your days with fun!

Spend the Day at Carey Park

Carey Park is Hutch's largest and most activity-packed park—featuring trails, playgrounds, the pump track, the Hutchinson Zoo, and tons of green space to explore. It's a one-stop spot for free summer fun.

★ visithutch.com/groups/meeting-and-event-spaces/p/item/673/carey-park

Go Fishing

Drop a line at Carey Park Duck Pond or the pond at Dillon Nature Center. Kansas residents 16 and older will need a fishing license, but kids can fish for free!

Take Part in Hutchinson Public Library Events

The library is your go-to spot for free summer programming. From the annual summer reading challenge to storytimes, movie nights, and hands-on STEAM activities, there's something happening for all ages.

★ hutchpl.org

Cool Off at Local Splash Pads

Beat the summer heat at Hutchinson's free splash pads, open daily during warm weather. Find them at Avenue A Park, Fairgrounds Park, and Rice Park—perfect for little ones to run, play, and stay cool.

★ hutchinsonks.gov/529/Splash-Pads

Explore Hutchinson's Public Art & Murals

Take a self-guided tour of vibrant murals and sculptures around town. It's a fun, creative way to experience Hutch and snap a few cool photos along the way.

★ visithutch.com/things-to-do/murals/?compact=&sort=&cat=Murals

BONUS: Take Advantage of the Sunflower Summer Program

Families with school-age kids can get free admission to several Hutchinson attractions—plus dozens more across Kansas—through the Sunflower Summer app. It's a great way to explore and save all summer long! Visit sunflowersummer.org for the full list and to download the app.
